RISK MANAGEMENT & LOSS CONTROL SERVICES

MORRIS & REYNOLDS' SOLUTIONS HELP LOWER YOUR CLAIMS & PREMIUM

THE VALUE OF RISK MANAGEMENT

Protecting your business and bottom line through risk management and loss control can have a dramatic impact in lowering your insurance costs and risk related expenses. The risks that you face can come from uncertainty in financial markets, project failures, legal liabilities, credit risk, accidents, natural causes and disasters as well as deliberate attacks from an adversary.

As a client of Morris & Reynolds Insurance, we offer you best in class, independent, risk management and loss control from professionals that can help you identify, control and manage the risks you face.

MORRIS & REYNOLDS & SEA

In partnership with Safety Evaluation of America, LLC (SEA), Morris & Reynolds can provide your business with quality, result-oriented risk management and loss control solutions that will help identify areas of concern, control losses, reduce future claims, and manage your risks so as to predict likely losses and lower your overall insurance and risk related expenses.

SEA's consultants have decades of experience in their field and provide loss control and risk management services to many leading insurers including ACE, BerkshireHathaway, Chartis, CNA, Philadelphia, Great American and QBE to name a few. SEA and its consultants are members of leading loss control organizations including the American Society of Safety Engineers, National Fire Protection Association and the National Safety Council.

AVAILABLE RISK & LOSS SERVICES

EVALUATIONS: Detailed descriptions and evaluations of construction, occupancy, protection and exposures as well as detailed loss trending/analysis that can help pinpoint trends which are addressed through recommendations whether the root causes are physical hazards or management deficiencies.

CONSULTATION: Our consultants work with you on a continuous basis to assist in all aspects of your loss control needs including formalized and train on specific items such as self inspection, hazard identification, accident investigation, safety meetings, hazard communications and more.

INDUSTRIAL HYGIENE EVALUATIONS: A Certified Industrial Hygienist (CIH) can provide onsite consultation, evaluation, perform sampling/testing, and produce written documentation of the findings and recommendations to reduce or eliminate exposures.

TELEPHONE SURVEYS: Our consultants can perform telephone surveys for pre-inspections, general data gathering, and verification.

ERGONOMIC ASSESSMENTS: A Certified Professional Ergonomist (CPE) or Certified Ergonomic Manager (CEM) can perform workstation or process evaluations on all types of workplace settings including training and education in musculoskeletal disorders (MSD) from repetitive motion injuries like carpal tunnel syndrome or lower back pain.

A documented report of the findings and recommendations are provided.

REPLACEMENT COST INSURANCE TO VALUE SURVEYS: A Certified Marshall/Swift Boeckh consultant can prepare Actual Cash Value and Replacement Cost Reports to establish the proper insurance to value limits needed for a building.

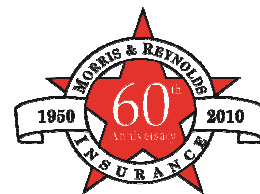

MR. JAMES (JIM) L. COMPTON

Jim Compton has nearly twenty-five years of experience in loss prevention. He received his Bachelor's Degree in Business from Emporia State University and began working as a firefighter in 1974. During his twelve years with the Emporia Fire Department, Mr. Compton co-founded the Fire and Arson Investigation team. In 1986, he began working with Lumbermen's Underwriting Alliance in Kansas City and transferred to Boca Raton, Florida in 1993 in loss control and risk management.

Mr. Compton works with Morris & Reynolds immediately by way of our partnership with SEA and is available to assist with your loss control and risk management needs.
