The Hartford expands with Morris & Reynolds Insurance

BY ZANORFA BERTRAM

The Hartford, one of the oldest and largest insurance companies in the world, recently expanded in Pinecrest by appointing Morris & Reynolds Insurance as an agent for the company.

"We are pleased and proud to be able to now offer The Hartford's superior coverage and service to our clients, along with the other fine insurers that we represent," said Bob Reynolds, president and chief executive officer of Morris & Reynolds. "The Hartford has a long tradition of offering outstanding customer service and quality insurance protection."

Initially, Morris & Reynolds will focus on offering coverage from Hartford such as personal auto, umbrella liability and flood insurance. The Hartford offers over 50 different automobile insurance pricing plans and broad coverage includes replacement cost with no deduction for depreciation on new cars for one year, along with automatic coverage for accessories such as rims and stereos. Rental car coverage and towing/labor are also included at no additional cost.

"Adding The Hartford for auto insurance coverage along with the other industry leaders we represent — such as AIG, CHUBB, Mercury, Progressive, and St. Paul Travelers — provides our clients with a wide range of competitive, trusted choices," said Reynolds. "No matter what their needs, having a range of quality choices provides our clients with competitive costs, great coverage and claim service, along with the peace of mind that can only come from an independent, neighborhood agency such as Morris & Reynolds."

Founded in 1810, The Hartford is recognized for its financial strength, stability and customer service. Morris & Reynolds Insurance was founded in 1950 and is in its third generation of ownership and operation.
