

March 03, 1993

Ladies and gentlemen:

now in the aftermath of Andrew, in the midst of full scale re-construction. The world is filled with delays, deceptions and disappointments. Not you all at MORRIS and REYNOLDS.

YOU ALL HAVE BEEN TRULY GREAT!

Your walls were missing but, not your caring. Your ceiling was all over the floor but, you found the files, filled out the forms and Xeroxed to the down of the generators. You put up with all of us; your clients. So full of suspicion, fear and anger we were truly in pain. You calmed us. You explained to us. You held us. You hugged us. But, most of all you helped us.

For myself, my family and all of us who might be to busy right now, I would like to thank each of you.

A Grateful Customer

Lee W. Golson