Andrew

On August 24th, 1992, our office was destroyed by Hurricane Andrew. We lost much of our roof, all of our windows and doors, and, nearly everything inside. We had no power for exactly one month.

As devastating as our own damage was, our entire TEAM here at Morris & Reynolds Insurance showed up to work the very next day, many without regard to their own personal losses. We worked from dawn to dark, seven days a week, month after month.

We helped thousands of people in perhaps their darkest days to rebuild their homes, businesses and most importantly, their lives.
